

Rules and Guidelines:

1. No one is to leave the Nordia Hostel area. No one is to wander into the Nordia residential neighborhood or into the classrooms if there are no class taking place there.
2. Meetings, classes, and workshops are mandatory. You cannot leave a meeting while it is in session unless to use the bathroom.
3. Everyone must talk respectfully to their leaders and to the other people attending the camp. No dirty language or cursing allowed.
4. No alcohol, drug-use, smoking or vaping is allowed anywhere at the camp. The consequence for breaking this rule is to be sent home from the camp.
5. Dress code: For girls: No tight tank-tops, spaghetti straps, strapless shirts, belly shirts, or low cut shirts. No shorts or skirts shorter than the tip of your fingers as they rest at your sides. No bikinis. For guys: No walking around without a shirt unless you are in the pool area.
6. No public or private displays of affection between boys and girls at the camp (example: kissing, embracing, holding hands).
7. No girls are to enter boys' rooms and vice versa. A girl and boy are not allowed to be alone in one of the rooms together. The consequence for breaking this rule is to be sent home from the camp.
8. Quiet in cabin area after 22:00 for those who want to sleep. If others want to hang out they can remain in the common area outside the dining hall. However everyone must be in their cabins going to bed by 23:00.
9. Everyone must treat the instruments and equipment with respect and handle them carefully. No one can move an instrument from its place or play the instrument without a leader's permission and without signing the instrument out.
10. Vandalism or purposeful destruction of property is not allowed. Payment will be required for repair or replacement of the purposely destroyed property.
11. Phones will be collected before main sessions and workshops and will be returned to the students afterwards. Small group leaders may also collect them at times if they find that the phones are distracting the students from fully benefiting from what is happening at the camp.

Rules and Guidelines Protocol:

If someone is found not honoring the rules, they will meet with two leaders. If their attitude and behavior does not improve after this, they will be sent home. However for breaking rules #4 and #7, they will immediately be sent home.
